

New ML Rustik Range

Perfect balance between rustic and modern.

THE ML SERIES BECOMES MORE PRECIOUS WITH CERAMICS AND STONES.

Rizzoli presents the new ML Rustik Range, an incredibly versatile wood fired cooker, the result of a perfect union between two worlds: the modern one, made up of a minimal design, wide view on the fire, maxi professional oven and advanced materials; and the rustic one, characterized by splendid hand-worked ceramics or precious Serpentine stones that decorate the sides of the wood fired cooker.

The new ML Rustik Range raises expectations even more, thanks to the advanced technological systems and the numerous certifications obtained from external laboratories.
